

THE LACQUER COMPANY OPENS NEW SHOWROOM NEWSON'S YARD, PIMLICO ROAD

The Lacquer Company is delighted to announce the launch of their new showroom at 6 Newson's Yard, 57 Pimlico Road., London SW1W 8NE.

"Having established a loyal following in the US it seemed natural to move from our London studio to our new showroom at Newson's Yard on the Pimlico Road. Our curated space with simple décor lets the glossy and colourful lacquer pieces speak for themselves. The Pimlico Road was always top of the list as a location and Newson's Yard is an exciting development including big name interiors showrooms."

James Lowther, founder The Lacquer Company

Renowned designers collaborate on the furniture, lamps and mirrors, and decorative accessory collections such as trays, desk accessories, ice buckets, wastepaper bins and candleholders - all of which are beautifully arranged in the new showroom. The Lacquer Company also does custom colours, dimensions and entirely bespoke designs.

Veere Grenney, Rita König, Miles Redd, Steven Gambrel, Pentreath & Hall, John Derian, Luke Edward-Hall, Suzanne Sharp, Jeffrey Bilhuber, KRB, Jane Churchill, Christopher Spitzmuller and a new collection by Peter Mikic announced later this year.

James brings this ancient craft from the East to contemporary designs in the West, and now presents the finest designer lacquerware in his first showroom on the Pimlico Road.

The Lacquer Company new Pimlico showroom

Rita König for The Lacquer Company

Veere Grenney for The Lacquer Company

Miles Redd for The Lacquer Company

Suzanne Sharp for The Lacquer Company

NOTE TO EDITORS

Images of The Lacquer Company's new showroom are now available. Styled and cutout images of all the collections are available plus images of new lines by Rita König. Peter Mikic announced autumn 2023.

The Lacquer Company is part of London Design Festival 2023.

Newson's Yard launch events Wednesday 1 November.

The Lacquer Company new showroom

ABOUT THE LACQUER COMPANY

James Lowther bought his first piece of lacquer in 1999 whilst travelling in Burma; an antique betel box in burnt orange which remains one of his favourite things. He learned about the lacquer process and began to appreciate the patience, skill and attention to detail that goes into the finest examples.

Designers such as Rita Konig, Steven Gambrel and Veere Grenney have collaborated on the designs. James has scoured Asia looking for the most highly skilled craftsmen. The search ended in Saigon, where they now spend much of the year producing the lacquer.

JAMES LOWTHER

Over the course of a decade working in interior design in New York, James frequently visited Asia in search of lacquer. He wanted to bring this ancient craft from the East to contemporary designs in the West, creating pieces that are equally at home in a city apartment, beach house or country house.

James' approach to design has developed with a clean, modern sensibility whilst retaining English influences from his first job at Colefax & Fowler in London.

The Lacquer Company was founded by James in 2008 and he now divides his time between London, New York and Saigon.

The Lacquer Company

6 Newson's Yard
57 Pimlico Road
London SW1W 8NE
+44 (0) 20 3410 0580
@thelacquercompany
www.thelacquercompany.com

For media information contact info@elizabethmachinpr.com
+44 (0) 20 7503 3200 | 07508 051122
www.elizabethmachinpr